In all those Waste Lands in Mouzah Deprapan in Zillah Seebaugor, Upper Assam, estimated to contain one thousand and sixty-eight acres (of which three hundred acres, or thereabouts, are under cultivation of Tea), and which lands are now generally called and known as "Dessau," and are held under a Pottah granted by the Deputy Commissioner of Zillah Seebaugor out of the Deputy Commissioner's Office, and dated Twenty-eighth day of December, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three (or Ninety-nine years, from the first day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, subject to the payment of certain rent or revenue to Government, and to the observance of certain rules and performance of certain covenants and conditions therein contained. Also, in all those other Waste Lands comprising four hundred acres, more or less, and known as lot 54, situate, lying, and being at Mouzah Obhupore, Barasalleh, in the Province of Assam and District of Seebaugor, and which are now commonly called and known as "Sonari" land (of which one hundred and sixty acres, or thereabouts, are under cultivation of Tea), and are held under a Conveyance granted by the Secretary of State for India through the Officiating Deputy Commissioner out of the Deputy Commissioner's Office, Seebaugor, dated Twenty-seventh day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, subject to certain terms and conditions therein stated. Also, in all those other Waste Lands comprising nine hundred and seventeen acres, more or less, and known as lot 23, situate, lying, and being at Mouzah Obhupore, Barasalleh in the District of Seebaugor, in the Province of Assam, and which are now commonly called and known as "Kano," and of which about ninety-three acres are under cultivation of Tea, and are held under a Conveyance granted by the said Secretary of State, through the Officiating Deputy Commissioner out of the Deputy Commissioner's Office, Seebaugor, also dated Twenty-seventh day of April, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, subject to certain terms and conditions therein stated. Also, in all these other Waste Lands situate, lying, and being about fourteen miles North of Jyepore, in the District of Seebaugor, in Upper Assam, estimated to contain about sixty-seven acres, all under cultivation of Tea, and which are now called and known as "Barasalleh," and are held under certain Rent-paying Pottahs, or Documents in the nature of Pottahs, subject to payment of the rent reserved and the conditions mentioned therein.

Together with all the Estate and Interest of John Melchor Grob, deceased, of and in 14-16th the parts or shares, the whole into 16-16th parts or shares being considered as divided, of and in all plantations and Tea or other Gardens upon the said lands hereinbefore described or any part thereof respectively, and of and in all Miscellaneous Tenements, Dwelling and other Houses, Bangalows, Stables, Godowns, Sheds, Buildings, Erections, Fixtures, Engines, Steam-Engines and Boilers, fixed and movable Machinery, Apparatus, Tools, Implements, and Utensils of every kind upon or belonging to the said lands, Tea Gardens, and Premises, or any of them or any part thereof, and of and in all Elephants, Horses, Bullocks, Buffaloes, Carts, Carriages, Bats, vessels, Boxes, Tea, Lead, Stores, Ware, Chattels, Live and Dead Stock, and Merchandise in, upon, or belonging to the said lands, Plantations, Gardens, Hereditaments, and Premises, appertaining thereto, and of and in all Tea Trees, Plants, Seedlings, Tea ungathered and manufactured, or which may have been gathered and may be in process of manufacture for the present season of One thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, that is to say, from the first of January last, and of and in all Tea Seed Crops growing and to be grown on the said lands or any of the same, and all benefit of and in all contracts or agreements for labour or hire of coolies and others in respect of such Lands, Gardens, and Premises, and every or any part thereof, and also of and in all balances, debts, rents, sum and sums of money, demand and payable, and accounts taken, struck, and estimated as on and from the first day of January, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

The whole or entire 16-16th of the above-mentioned Lands, Tenements Hereditaments, Premises, and Property movable and immovable, stands and is now mortgaged to the Agra Bank, Limited, and the said sale by the Registrar will be subject to the said mortgage and to the payment by the purchaser of all monies due thereunder to the said Bank, and subject to the rights of the parties as declared by the said decree.

Three out of the four parcels of Land above-mentioned were formerly comprised in larger grants which were subsequently reduced, and large quantities of land given up to Government, leaving the quantities above-mentioned in the possession of the owners of the Grob Tea Gardens. Such quantities of title as relate to the said Grants of Land are in the custody of the Agra Bank as such mortgagee as aforesaid.

Intending purchasers will be permitted to inspect such muniments of title at the office of Messrs. Cbantrell, Knowles, and Roberts, the Solicitors of the said Bank.

The Conditions upon which the said 14-16th Share of the said Property or Concern will be sold will be open to inspection at the Registrar's Office in the High Court, and at Mr. Paliologue's Office on and after the First day of April next, and the same will be produced at the time of sale. For further particulars apply to Mr. Nicholas Paliologue, the plaintiff's Solicitor, No. 2, Garstine's Buildings, Calcutta.

* * * The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the schools and colleges in India, and though at present a scholar-like knowledge of the Vedic hymns is in the estimation required of the more advanced students only, yet, as soon as editions, translations, grammars, and dictionaries shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface

The Hymns of the Rig-Veda, in the Samhita and Pada Text, by Professor F. Max Müller, M.A., in two Volumes. Price Rs. 24; packing and postage, Rs. 1-12.

. The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the schools and colleges in India, and though at present a scholar-like knowledge of the Vedic hymns is to the examinations required of the more advanced students only, yet, as soon as editions, translations, grammars, and dictionaries shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface.

* The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the schools and colleges in India, and though at present a scholar-like knowledge of the Vedic hymns is in the examinations required of the more advanced students only, yet, as soon as editions, translations, grammars, and dictionaries shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface.

Advertisements.

[N.B.—Advertisements, Notices, &c., intended for insertion in this part of the Gazette cannot be received after Noon on Monday.]

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the Condition of Sale below, to the under-mentioned estate, situated in the district of Purneah, will be put up to sale at the Purneah Collectorate on Saturday, the 5th June 1875, corresponding with 23rd Jaiso 1282 B.S., and 16th Jaiso 1282 F.S.

The purchasers will be subject to the following conditions of sale:—

1st.—The purchaser of this estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, the only right reserved by Government being the right of revising the jumma at the conclusion of the term of the present settlement, and on the expiration of all future settlements. If on resettlement he should refuse to engage, he will be entitled to malikana.

The estate will be sold, subject, up to the expiry of the existing settlement in the year ending 31st March 1902 A.D., to the Government revenue against it, to the highest bidder above the upset price.

2nd.—The sale to be subject to existing leases, and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings and by the laws in force; the purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the revenue authorities.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rs 100, the whole amount to be paid at once.

4th.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the 15th (fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be again put up to sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.
